The following general guidelines provide direction for those seeking funding from the American College Health Foundation (ACHF).

All ACHF funding opportunities are available exclusively to ACHA Institutional or Individual Members. Exceptions to this are applicants who work or attend an ACHA Member Institution and are sponsored by the Representative Member at that institution (RMIs).

Decisions regarding funding for awards, specific projects or annual meeting sponsorships are made by the ACHF Board of Directors. In addition, the Board strictly follows the ACHA Bylaws (Article 2, Section 2.3).

- All applications must be signed or electronically approved by two ACHA leaders who have training and/or experience related to the concepts and methodologies of the proposed project or activity.
- Applications must be received in the ACHF Office no later than February 1. Email to: achf@acha.org
- Those receiving funding will be notified in March.

Funding is available solely to enhance the quality and utility of the Journal of American College Health articles/manuscripts and/or to support the work of its editors.

- Funding requests must be submitted using the ACHF Request for Funding Application Form (see below).
- All applications must be typed. Electron bAE(AEO
